RUSSIAN SPORTS PARTNER MIKHAIL KUSNIROVICH

RECEIVES "COCA-COLA AWARD: LIVE OLYMPIC"

Original Renato Missaglia Artwork Presented

TORINO, Italy, February 13, 2006 – The Coca-Cola Company today presented Mikhail Kusnirovich, a major supporter of sports in Russia, with “The Coca-Cola Award: Live Olympic.” The award was presented by Philipp Bodzenta, director global marketing communications, The Coca-Cola Company.

The “Coca-Cola Award: Live Olympic” salutes individuals who reflect the ideals of the Olympic Games in their everyday lives. Coca-Cola is recognizing new recipients daily during the Torino 2006 Olympic Winter Games. Award ceremonies take place inside the Coca-Cola Lounge at the city’s Piazza Solferino sponsor village.

“Live Olympic,” the recently introduced marketing platform for the long-time Coca-Cola association with the Olympic Movement, draws from the simple proposition: “What if the Olympic Spirit came around every two seconds, instead of every two years?” Much as the Olympic Games bring out the best in athletic achievement, “live Olympic” suggests that each moment in our daily lives presents a new opportunity to bring out the best in the human spirit, to make our world just a little bit better.

Mr. Kusnirovich is a partner of the Russian Olympic Committee and the general manager of Bosco Sport, the official supplier of sports apparel to the Russian Olympic Team.

Mr. Kusnirovich joins the list of unsung heroes who are being honored here for behind-the-scenes contributions that have propelled others to success. The award recipients during Torino 2006 include, among others, inspirational family members and coaches of Olympians, organizers of sports training and education for youth, and individuals who have tirelessly supported national teams and athletes.

Each “Coca-Cola Award: Live Olympic” presented during the Games is an original work of airbrushed acrylic commissioned by Coca-Cola from renowned Italian artist Renato Missaglia.

A native of Brescia, Italy, Missaglia has participated in numerous joint exhibitions and held several personal shows both in Italy and abroad, including a showing at the Louvre in Paris. His works are included among a variety of public and private collections, including the modern art collection at the Gulbenkian Foundation in Lisbon, Portugal. He now lives in Gussago, Italy.
